ABOUT US

The South Carolina Osteopathic Medical Society (SCOMS) is the voice for osteopathic medicine in the state of South Carolina. Membership is comprised of 700 physicians, residents, medical students, and associates who have an unwavering passion for the osteopathic profession.

The purpose of SCOMS is to promote the osteopathic medicine profession and to provide valuable services to its members such as advocacy, networking opportunities, CME sessions to maintain compliance requirements, updates on legislative issues, and opportunities for research collaboration.

With nearly 2,000 DOs practicing across the state, SCOMS works tirelessly to advocate for these physicians and to promote a greater understanding of the osteopathic profession.

WHAT ARE DOs

- Doctors of Osteopathic Medicine (DO) are fully trained and licensed physicians who can choose to specialize in every recognized area of medicine, from neonatology to neurosurgery.
- DOs focus on mind, body and spirit and take a whole-person approach to care and use the most current scientific knowledge to promote health, diagnose and treat disease, and establish strong relationships with patients focusing on prevention.

To learn more, visit www.scdos.org or call 864-327-9995.

SCOMS WINTER CME CONFERENCE

The SCOMS Winter CME Conference attracts more than 100 osteopathic physicians, fellows, residents, students, medical school faculty members, and health care professionals from across the state, region and beyond whom are engaged in continuing medical education and hands-on learning forums.

Through sponsorship and exhibit opportunities, you can network, engage, inspire, and influence over 100 physicians, medical students, medical school faculty members, and health care professionals through a variety of opportunities to fit any budget. You will enjoy personal engagements with conference attendees during scheduled physician meet and greet opportunities such as Exhibit Hall Hours, Networking Breaks, SCOMS Board Reception for Sponsors and Speakers, Award Winning Poster Presentations, Saturday Lunch, and Saturday Evening Reception and Silent Auction.
