

MEET THE SPEAKERS

Andrew W. Albano, Jr., DO, MBA, CAQSM, CPE, FAAFP

Dr. Albano is Chief Medical Officer - Population Health Management at InVio Health Network and the Quality Officer/Chair – Primary Care Clinical Council at Prisma Health in Greenville, SC. He is an Advisory Board Member for Upfront Healthcare, Consultant for Guidepoint, and Consultant, RPM/CCM, for HealthSnap. Dr. Albano is Board-Certified in Family Medicine with a Certificate of Additional Qualification (CAQ) in Sports Medicine.

He previously served as Vice Chairman of Quality and Medical Staff Affairs for Prisma Health Department of Family Medicine - Upstate. He is an Associate Professor at University of South Carolina School of Medicine and has a Master's Degree of Business Administration from Auburn University.

A graduate of New York College of Osteopathic Medicine, he completed a one-year rotating internship at Southampton Hospital on Long Island and a Family Medicine Residency at University of South Florida, where he was Chief Resident. Dr. Albano also completed a Primary Care Sports Medicine Fellowship at Thomas Jefferson University.

Pamela Bailey, DO, MPH

Dr. Bailey is a Board-Certified Infectious Diseases Specialist at Prisma Health in Columbia, SC where she leads statewide initiatives around antimicrobial stewardship and infection prevention. She serves as Program Director for the South Carolina Regional Infection Prevention Training (SCRIPT) Center, Assistant Professor of Medicine at University of South Carolina School of Medicine, and Adjunct Faculty at University of South Carolina College of Pharmacy.

A graduate of West Virginia School of Osteopathic Medicine, Dr. Bailey completed an Internal Medicine Residency at Christiana Care Health System in Newark, DE, and an Infectious Diseases Fellowship at Virginia Commonwealth University Health System. She completed an additional fellowship at VCU in hospital epidemiology and infection control and obtained her master's degree in public health (MPH). Her interests are in antibiotic stewardship and epidemiology, and her research interests include hand hygiene, personal protective equipment, and quality improvement.

Tatianna G. Briscoe, CPT

Captain Briscoe is Officer in Charge (OIC) for the U.S. Army Medical Recruiting Station in Columbia, SC. The Columbia Battalion recruits, with integrity, high-quality men and women to meet Army requirements, in defense of the nation, while caring for all members of the command.

Andrew C. Buel, DO

Dr. Buel is a Hospitalist at the Bay Pines Veteran's Affairs Health Care System in Bay Pines, FL and has worked as an Assistant Professor of Family Medicine at the University of Central Florida (UCF) College of Medicine. He co-founded the globally recognized "Questioning Medicine" podcast.

He has served as medical editor for primary care reviews and perspectives, Right on Prime and Emergency Medicine Reviews and Perspectives to help record and produce 100+ hours of continuous medical education. Dr. Buel co-authored guidelines on Dyslipidemia, Headaches, COPD, low back pain, and depression for the Veteran Affairs and Department of Defense. His prolific work extends to numerous Practice Guideline reviews in the Journal of American Family Physician.

A graduate of Des Moines University-College of Osteopathic Medicine, he completed a Family Medicine Residency at St. Petersburg General Hospital.

Jeffrey Cashman, MS, DO, FACOFP

Dr. Cashman is Associate Dean for Pre-Clinical Medical Education at Edward Via College of Osteopathic Medicine -Carolinas. He serves as a preceptor at Spartanburg Regional Family Medicine Residency and is team physician for Spartanburg High School.

Dr. Cashman serves as the Speaker of the House of Delegates for the South Carolina Medical Association, was the first Osteopathic President of the Spartanburg County Medical Society, and previously chaired the SCMA Bioethics Committee and SC Ethics Pandemic Task Force. He is the Leadership Director for VCOM-Carolinas' HRSA funded Primary Care Champions Fellowship and was named to the SC Rural Physician Board. Dr. Cashman is a Physician Member of the South Carolina Osteopathic Medical Society.

A graduate of Philadelphia College of Osteopathic Medicine-Georgia Campus. Dr. Cashman completed a Family Medicine Residency at AnMed Health Family in Anderson, SC, and a fellowship with the Costin Institute for Osteopathic Medical Educators at Midwestern University.

Michael Centilli, DO, FAAD, FAOCD

Dr. Centilli, a Board-Certified dermatologist and Mohs Surgeon, is the Clinical Director and Owner at Coastal Dermatology Institute in Myrtle Beach, SC. A graduate of Michigan State University College of Osteopathic Medicine, Dr. Centilli completed residency training at Botsford Hospital in Farmington Hills, MI, where he served as chief resident.

He treats all conditions associated with the skin, hair, and nails, with a specific interest in the diagnosis and treatment of skin cancer. He has devoted many years building expertise in Mohs surgery and skin cancer treatment, performing on average 1,500 Mohs surgery cases each year. He provides cutting-edge care for general and cosmetic dermatology and is proficient in the injection of Botox and fillers used to soften the effects of aging.

Jennifer N. Clements, PharmD, FCCP, FADCES, BCPS, CDCES, BCACP, BC-ADM

Ms. Clements is a Board-Certified Pharmacotherapy Specialist, Board-Certified Ambulatory Care Pharmacist, Certified Diabetes Care and Education Specialist, and Board-Certified in Advanced Diabetes Management. She is Clinical Professor and Director of Pharmacy Education at University of South Carolina College of Pharmacy at the School of Medicine – Greenville Campus. She earned a Pharm.D. from Campbell University and completed a Primary Care Pharmacy Practice Residency at the Ralph H. Johnson VA Medical Center (VAMC) in Charleston, SC.

Ms. Clements has held full-time faculty appointments with Shenandoah University and Presbyterian College School of Pharmacy, where she served as Professor and Director of Postgraduate Education. During her academic tenure, she developed pharmacy practice sites in a VAMC and rural-health family medicine clinic with focus on chronic disease state management, specifically diabetes and obesity. Ms. Clements has authored numerous publications and presentations related to diabetes and obesity pharmacotherapy.

Eileen Conaway, DO, FACOFP, IBCLC

Dr. Conaway is Board-Certified in Family Medicine and OMT and Neuromusculoskeletal Medicine. She is an International Board-Certified Lactation Consultant. Dr. Conaway conducts primary clinical research on the effects of osteopathic manipulation and her special interests include primary clinical osteopathic manipulative treatment (OMT) research and lactation.

She is on the Clinical Faculty for Tidelands Health MUSC Family Medicine Residency Program in Myrtle Beach, SC. She is also a contract physician for Telemedicine. Dr. Conaway previously served as the Director of Osteopathic Education, Family Medicine Residency Associate Program Director, Program Evaluation Committee Chair, and Family Medicine Residency Faculty at AdventHealth East Orlando in Orlando, FL.

A graduate of Edward Via College of Osteopathic Medicine – Virginia, she completed an Integrated Family Medicine/Neuromusculoskeletal Medicine Residency at Florida Hospital–East Orlando, where she was Chief Resident. Dr. Conaway is a Physician Trustee for the South Carolina Osteopathic Medical Society.

Clancy Crowley, CFP, CPWA

Clancy Crowley is a Certified Financial Planner and a Certified Private Wealth Advisor for The Tyger River Group at Morgan Stanley in Spartanburg, SC. He is responsible for understanding client goals and objectives before delivering comprehensive financial plans and tailored investment solutions. Mr. Crowley collaborates with individual, family, and institutional clients on a range of topics, from estate and tax planning solutions to alternative investments, while leveraging the extensive resources of Morgan Stanley. He earned a with a degree in Business Management from Clemson University.

David H. Eagerton, Ph.D., F-ABFT

Mr. Eagerton earned his Doctorate in Pharmacology from University of South Carolina, is a graduate of the South Carolina Criminal Justice Academy, and is Board-Certified in Forensic Toxicology. He is Associate Dean for Biomedical Affairs and Research at Edward Via College of Osteopathic Medicine – Carolinas.

He also serves as Laboratory Director at Better Life Science Laboratories, Laboratory Director at LifeHope Labs, and is a member of the American Association of Forensic Scientists Standards Board as a subject matter expert for the Toxicology Consensus Body. The author of numerous publications and presentations in the fields of Forensic Toxicology and Pharmacology, Mr. Eagerton has testified as an expert in the fields of Toxicology and Pharmacology and has served as an Expert Witness Faculty Member at the National District Attorneys Association National Advocacy Center.

Mr. Eagerton previously served as Chief Toxicologist for the South Carolina Law Enforcement Division (SLED) and worked as Poison Control Consultant at Palmetto Poison Center. He served on the faculty at Presbyterian College School of Pharmacy and was Chair of the Department of Pharmaceutical Sciences at Campbell University College of Pharmacy and Health Sciences.

He is the founding President of the Palmetto Association of Toxicologists, is a certified WMD HAZMAT technician, and is a former member of the SLED Forensics Weapons of Mass Destruction Response Team and the South Carolina Bioterrorism Advisory Committee.

Kandi Fredere, MHA, PhD, FACHE, MCHES

Ms. Fredere serves as Region Health Director with the South Carolina Department of Health and Environmental Control Upstate Public Health Region where she is responsible for public health services and systems coordination in 11 counties across the Upstate. She also serves as adjunct professor in the Human Services program at Anderson University and is a clinical practice mentor for MPH students at USC's Arnold School of Public Health.

Her experience crosses a variety of public health programs including chronic disease risk reduction, maternal child health and administration. She has 20+ years of experience working with diverse partners in higher education, non-profit fields, faith based organizations and K-12 education.

Ms. Fredere has a Masters in Administration and a PhD in Human Services with a concentration in Health Administration. She achieved the fellowship designation with the American College of Healthcare Executives and is a Master Certified Health Education Specialist. She is the incoming Vice President of the South Carolina Public Health Association.

Karen Fradua, MS, MCHES

Ms. Fradua has worked in public health for 30+ years and has extensive experience in large-scale program management, strategic planning, and community engagement. She is currently developing the South Carolina Department of Health and Environmental Control's first Academic Public Health Department. Along with her Upstate team, Ms. Fradua works to strengthen collaboration between public health practice and academia and expand public health learning experiences for college students.

She has a Master of Science in Nutrition and Health Sciences from Clemson University and a Post-Baccalaureate Certificate in Health Informatics from Georgia Regents University. She is a Master Certified Health Education Specialist and a Riley Diversity Leadership Fellow.

John Gould III, DO, FACP, FAAHPM

Dr. Gould is Board-Certified in Internal Medicine and Hospice and Palliative Medicine. He practices at Three Rivers Medical Associates in Columbia, SC.

A Fellow of the American College of Physicians and the American Academy of Hospice and Palliative Medicine, Dr. Gould serves as Medical Director at Lutheran Hospice – Midlands and is an Assistant Professor of Internal Medicine at the Edward Via College of Osteopathic Medicine – Carolinas.

A graduate of Philadelphia College of Osteopathic Medicine, Dr. Gould completed an Internal Medicine Residency at Palmetto Health Richland/University of South Carolina School of Medicine. He is President of the South Carolina Osteopathic Medical Society.

Ryan Hakimi, DO, MS, NVS, RPNI, CPB, FNCS, FCCM

Dr. Hakimi is Board-Certified in Neurology (AOA), Neurocritical Care, Neurosonology (Registered Physician in Neurovascular Interpretation-RPNI, a Neurovascular Specialist (NVS), and a Certified Professional Biller (CPB). He is the first fellowship trained DO Neurointensivist and the first DO to be designated Fellow of Neurocritical Care Society. He received a Presidential Citation in 2014, 2017 and 2018, and 2020 from the Neurocritical Care Society and in 2017 from the Society of Critical Care Medicine.

Dr. Hakimi is the Director of Neuro ICU and Transcranial Doppler Ultrasound Services and the Chair of Pharmacy and Therapeutics at Prisma Health-Upstate in Greenville, SC. He serves as a Professor at the University of South Carolina-Greenville School of Medicine.

Dr. Hakimi wrote the post-cardiac arrest hypothermia protocols for Durham County EMS (North Carolina) and later worked with the Oklahoma Office of the Medical Control Board to co-author the state's post-cardiac arrest treatment protocol, which was applied throughout the state. He served as the Vice Chair of the LifeShare Advisory Board (Oklahoma Organ Transplantation Services) from 2010-2013. He co-authored the Continuum article on the "Neuroimaging of Hemorrhagic Stroke."

He has a Master of Science in Radiological Health from the University of Michigan-Rackham Graduate School and is a graduate of Michigan State University College of Osteopathic Medicine. Dr. Hakimi completed a Neurology Residency at Michigan State University-Botsford Hospital and a two-year Neurocritical Care and Stroke Fellowship at Duke University Medical Center. He was a United States Department of Energy Applied Health Physics Fellow. Dr. Hakimi is a Physician Trustee and Past President of the South Carolina Osteopathic Medical Society.

Kayla M. Humenansky, DO, MS

Dr. Humenansky is a Plastic and Reconstructive Surgeon at Rich & Humenansky Plastic Surgery Of The Face & Body in Columbia. She is Columbia's only private female plastic surgeon and is passionate about performing aesthetic and reconstructive procedures of both the face and body.

A graduate of Edward Via College of Osteopathic Medicine – Carolinas, Dr. Humenansky completed a General Surgery Residency at Arnot Ogden Medical Center in Elmira, NY and a Plastic and Reconstructive Surgery Fellowship at Philadelphia College of Osteopathic Medicine.

Rianna Kondaveeti, DO, DiplABML

Dr. Kondaveeti is Board-Certified in Family Medicine. She practices at the Center for Family Medicine - Chesnee and is on the Family Medicine Medical Education Faculty at Spartanburg Regional Healthcare System in Spartanburg, SC. Prior to joining Spartanburg Regional Family Medicine, she worked as a hospitalist as a core faculty member at its rural clinic

A graduate of Lake Eric College of Osteopathic Medicine-Bradenton Campus, she completed a Family Medicine Residency and a Hospital Medicine Residency at Spartanburg Regional Healthcare System. She received a M.S. in Biomedical Science from Barry University. Dr. Kondaveeti is a Physician Trustee of the South Carolina Osteopathic Medical Society.

Tommy G. Lindsey, II, DO, FACOS, CHSE

Dr. Lindsey, a Board-Certified General Surgeon, is Associate Dean for the Center for Simulation & Technology at Edward Via College of Osteopathic Medicine – Carolinas. He has 25 years of experience practicing as a Rural Surgeon, mostly in Ruidoso, NM, where he was often the only general surgeon available in an 80-mile radius. The New Mexico Governor appointed Dr. Lindsey as Chairman of the New Mexico Osteopathic Board of Medical Examiners where he served for eight years. President Bush appointed him as Commissioner of the United States/ Mexico Border Health Commission from 2003 to 2010.

Prior to VCOM, he served as Assistant Professor of Surgery at the Michigan State University-College of Osteopathic Medicine and was a General Surgeon in Michigan, New Mexico, and South Carolina. He served as Chief of Staff at Hayes-Green-Beach Hospital in Charlotte, MI; Mimbres Memorial Hospital in Deming, NM, and Lincoln County Medical Center, Ruidoso, NM.

A graduate of Michigan State University-College of Osteopathic Medicine, Dr. Lindsey completed a Rotating Internship at Lansing General Hospital and the Michigan State University Consortium General Surgery Residency at the Michigan Capital Medical Center. He is a Physician Trustee and Past President of the South Carolina Osteopathic Medical Society.

Amanda M. Osborne, MPA

Amanda Osborne is Vice President of Mission Advancement at Make-A-Wish South Carolina where she leads a dynamic team of goal focused professionals, dedicated to various fundraising disciplines including special events, major gifts, and corporate giving. Previously she has held positions with Meals on Wheels-Greenville, Greenville Zoo Foundation, Muscular Dystrophy Association, and Girl Scouts. Ms. Osborne earned a B.S. in Political Science from Western Carolina University and a Masters of Public Affairs from the University of North Carolina Greensboro.

Bethany A. Powers, DO

Dr. Powers is Board-Certified in Family Practice and Osteopathic Manipulative Treatment and Neuromusculoskeletal Medicine. She is the Chair of Osteopathic Manipulative Medicine at the Edward Via College of Osteopathic Medicine - Carolinas and previously served as Assistant Professor Family Medicine and OMM and a Clinical Instructor. In addition, she is a Physician at ReGenesis Healthcare. Before VCOM-Carolinas, Dr. Powers practiced at Palmetto Proactive Healthcare in Greenville, SC and AnMed Health-Lakeside Family Medicine in Anderson, SC. She is a Physician Volunteer at St. Luke's Free Medical Clinic.

A graduate of Philadelphia College of Osteopathic Medicine-Georgia Campus, Dr. Powers completed a Family Practice Residency at Spartanburg Regional Healthcare System, where she received the Rubel Award for outstanding performance on the OB-GYN service and an OMT Award for most treatments performed during residency. She completed her Neuromusculoskeletal Medicine +1 Residency at Florida Hospital East Orlando and she completed courses in Osteopathy in the Cranial Field at The Osteopathic Cranial Academy and Sutherland Cranial Teaching Foundation. She is a Physician Member of the South Carolina Osteopathic Medical Society.

Raymond V. Romano, DO, FACOFP

Dr. Romano is Board-Certified in Family Medicine and is the Discipline Chair for Family Medicine and the Director of the Principles of Primary Care course at the Edward Via College of Osteopathic Medicine-Carolinas in Spartanburg, SC.

He is a physician at Spartanburg Regional Healthcare System's Family Medicine Five Forks, an outpatient family medicine practice treating acute and chronic illnesses located in Simpsonville, SC. In previous roles, Dr. Romano served as Assistant Clinical Professor and OMM Faculty at VCOM-Carolinas, Preceptor for Family Medicine Residents at the Regional Outpatient Center at SRHS, and as a Physician at the SRHS Immediate Care Center. His areas of focus include acute and chronic disease management, minor dermatological procedures, and preventive care.

Dr. Romano received his medical degree from Nova Southeastern University, College of Osteopathic Medicine and completed his Family Medicine Residency at Spartanburg Regional Medical Center. In addition, Dr. Romano completed a HRSA Primary Care Transformation Fellowship at Edward Via College of Osteopathic Medicine – Carolinas. He is President-Elect of the South Carolina Osteopathic Medical Society.

Ronald L. Richter, Jr.

Mr. Richter is a litigator who focuses on complex and high-risk litigation cases specializing in medical/legal/professional malpractice, commercial litigation, catastrophic injury, and shareholder disputes. He is a Founder/Partner with Bland Richter, LLP, a law firm with offices in Columbia and Charleston that has achieved verdicts and/or settlements in excess of $105 million on behalf of their clients since 1998.

Along with his law partner, Mr. Richter has received national attention for successfully representing multiple victims of Alex Murdaugh, a disgraced personal injury attorney convicted of murdering his wife and son and found guilty of 22 financial crimes including money laundering, breach of trust and financial fraud and money laundering.

Mr. Richter successfully completed national testing in Legal Malpractice and received certification as a diplomat in the field of Legal Malpractice by the American Board of Professional Liability Attorneys and recorded the highest score to date of all attorneys. In addition, Mr. Richter was selected for inclusion in the Super Lawyers 2015 list for excellence and recognition as a Super Lawyer in Professional Liability. He was one of two in the entire State of South Carolina with this honor. He is a graduate of University of South Carolina School of Law where he graduated in the top 20% of his class in 1993.

Veronica Ridpath, DO

A lifelong resident of the Carolinas, Dr. Ridpath is a Board-Certified Psychiatrist who serves as Department Chair of Psychiatry and Substance Use Disorders and is a Staff Psychiatrist at HopeHealth in Florence, SC. A graduate of Edward Via College of Osteopathic Medicine – Carolinas, she completed a Psychiatry Residency at Atrium Health in Charlotte, NC. Dr. Ridpath has special interest in LGBT mental health and inclusion, improving access to psychiatry services, and integrated substance use treatment.

Jesse Caleb Rockmore, DO

Dr. Rockmore is Board-Certified in Urology and is a private practice urologist at The Urology Clinic, Inc. in Sumter, SC.

He specializes in single port robotic urological surgery for malignant and benign urological conditions. Additionally, he specialized in supine minimally invasive percutaneous nephrolithotomy (PCNL) - a surgery for complex renal stones. Currently, he is the only single port and minimally invasive PCNL urologist in the Carolinas. In the fall of 2023, he completed the first single port urological surgeries and minimally invasive PCNLs ever in the state of South Carolina.

A graduate of Edward Via College of Osteopathic Medicine – Carolinas, Dr. Rockmore completed a General Surgery Preliminary Year at Wayne State University and Detroit Receiving Hospital. He also completed a Urological Surgery Residency at McLaren/Henry Ford Macomb, a Michigan State University College of Osteopathic Medicine program in the Detroit Metro area.

Victoria Shadiack, DO

Dr. Shadiack is a Family Medicine and Osteopathic Neuromusculoskeletal Medicine Physician. She serves as Associate Chair of PPC/OMM at Edward Via College of Osteopathic Medicine – Carolinas and is a member of the group practice at Spartanburg Regional Healthcare System.

A graduate of Rowan University School of Osteopathic Medicine, Dr. Shadiack completed a Family Medicine Residency at RWJBarnabas Health and an Osteopathic Neuromusculoskeletal Medicine Fellowship at VCOM - Carolinas. She is a Physician Member of the South Carolina Osteopathic Medical Society.

Jeffrey Wisinski, DO, CAQSM

Dr. Wisinski is a Board-Certified, Fellowship-Trained Osteopathic Primary Care Sports Medicine Physician at Prisma Health Family Medicine in Columbia, SC. He serves as Assistant Program Director for Prisma Health Primary Care Sports Medicine Fellowship and has developed an OMT longitudinal curriculum for teaching. He also assists with the musculoskeletal medicine curriculum for the Prisma Health Family Medicine Residency Program and is Assistant Professor of Family Medicine at University of South Carolina School of Medicine.

He has a passion for teaching, working with primary care sports medicine fellows, family medicine residents and medical students. In 2022, he won the community precepting physician award for best clinical teaching within the Penn State family and community medicine residency. One of his main goals in teaching is to help doctors use osteopathic medicine in the clinical setting.

He provides care for Hammond High School athletics and University of South Carolina. In the past, he served as a team doctor for Penn State University athletics and covered numerous conference championships. While at Penn State University in State College, Dr. Wisinski participated in track and field as a 35-pound weight, hammer and discus thrower, receiving two varsity letters and being named Academic All-Big Ten.

A graduate of Lake Erie College of Osteopathic Medicine, Dr. Wisinski completed a Family Medicine Residency at Allegheny Health Network Forbes Family Medicine in Monroeville, where he served as Chief Resident. He also completed a Primary Care Sports Medicine Fellowship at Penn State Health. He is a Physician Member of the South Carolina Osteopathic Medical Society.